WILLIAM BAY

CHARLES-TOWN, JANUARY 24.

THURSDAY last, being the Day to which the General Meeting of the Inhabitants had been adjourned, in order to obtain from the Representatives, then expected to have sat in General Assembly, the Sense of the People throughout the Province, what Resolutions, &c. would be most proper to be generally entered into, at the present Crisis—and the assembling of the Representatives having been prevented, by a Prorogation to the 3d Day of March next—it was thought proper, after the following Resolutions had been passed, further to adjourn the said GENERAL MEETING, to THURSDAY the 3d of MARCH next, being two Days after the Time to which the General Assembly now stands prorogued.

"I. That the Business of the next intended General Meeting may be conducted and completed with the greater Regularity, Ease and Dispatch, to more general Satisfaction, and so as best to answer the important Ends proposed, as well as be final and conclusive; RESOLVED, That a large Committee be nominated [which was accordingly done] to plan, maturely digest, and recommend to the serious Consideration of the said intended General Meeting, every Measure which to them shall appear to be absolutely necessary, and most likely to succeed, to assert, preserve and secure, the natural and constitutional Rights and Privileges of BRITISH AMERICAN FREEMEN, against arbitrary and illegal Encroachments—and to prevent the Operation of that Act of the British Parliament, which imposes a Duty on TEA imported into the Colonies from Great-Britain, for the express Purpose of raising a Revenue in the said Colonies, without the Consent of their Representatives, and which Duty had been declared, to be retained as a Test of the said Parliament's Supremacy over the said Colonies in all Cases whatsoever."

"II. RESOLVED, That if any of the Gentlemen named on the said Committee, should not find it convenient, or decline, to serve, then the Majority of those that do meet, shall nominate others in their Stead: That any Fifteen of them, assembled together, be a sufficient Number to proceed upon the Business recommended: That they do meet on Wednesday next, the 26th Instant, and as often after as they shall think proper; that no Time may be lost to accomplish the Ends for which they are nominated: That, upon ANY EMERGENCY which may happen, they do, by the most speedy Means, call the Inhabitants of this Town together, at any Time before, and notwithstanding, the Adjournment to the 3d of March next: And that they do make their Report on the said Day of the Adjournment, or sooner if they shall see fit."

"III. RESOLVED, That the Form of the following Agreement

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

"We the undersigned, inhabitants of this province, now despairing to obtain, upon the principles of constitutional right and justice, the repeal of an act of the parliament of Great-Britain (wherein we are not represented) passed in 1767, imposing a duty on Teas imported from thence, for the express purpose of raising a revenue in America: do hereby solemnly promise and agree, each for him or herself, that we will not import, buy, sell, or use, but every way discountenance the importing, buying, selling, and using any teas, from the day of the date hereof, and during the continuance of the said act: that we will every way in our power discountenance the importing, buying, selling, or using, of every other article whatsoever, that now is, or hereafter may be, charged with like duties, until every such duty be repealed: and that we will not purchase any goods whatsoever, of any person or persons whosoever, that shall hereafter import, buy, sell, or use, any teas or other dutiable articles as aforesaid. And this we do, of mere necessity, and from a conviction, that the submitting to the payment of such duties, will be a tacit acknowledgment of a power which the parliament have assumed and exercised, to tax us against our consent, and which we deny them to have under our excellent constitution."

Which was proposed at the General Meeting on the 17th of December last, be particularly recommended to the Consideration of the said Committee, to be altered or amended by them, as they shall think proper: And that another particular Object of their Attention be, the most effectual Way, to prevent undue Advantages being taken of the Self-Denial of those Gentlemen, who have subscribed an Agreement not to import any Teas that will pay the Duty objected to."

"IV. RESOLVED, as it is apprehended, in Case there should be any Attempt to remove the East-India Company's TEA from the King's Ware-house where it now lies, unless to be carried immediately on Ship-board, to be returned to the Proprietors in England—or any Person should imprudently, contrary to the Sense of the Body of the People, let any House, Store, Cellar, or Vessel to Hire, for the Reception of the said Tea, if it should be proposed to be removed—or the said Tea, or any Part thereof, should be offered or exposed for Sale, before the present Duty thereon be repealed—that the Public Peace might be endangered: That in either of these Cases, the Committee now appointed, have it especially recommended to them, to be diligently watchful, and use every Means in their Power, for the most expeditious assembling all the Inhabitants of this Town, for preserving the Public Peace, and to prevent, if possible, any rash or unwarrantable Proceedings, which might draw Reflections on the People indiscriminately, should such Removal, Sale, &c. be attempted."

Last Tuesday Stephen Moylan, Esq; Mr. Philip Meyer, and a Mr. Harris, arrived here from Philadelphia, in the Brigt. Sea-nymph, Capt. Moore.

Last Friday se'nnight, Mr. Alexander M'Queen, was married, to Miss Elizabeth Fuller, a most amiable young Lady, Daughter of Thomas Fuller, Esq.

Last Friday sailed, with the Mails for Jamaica and Pensacola, the Diligence Packet-Boat, under the Command of Mr. John Fargie.

The same Day returned from Rhode-Island, in the Sloop Friendship, Daniel Monro, Master, Mr. Joshua Hart of this Town.

The same Night, Capt. Terence M'Donough, Commander of His Majesty's Packet-Boat the Comet, going on board a Ship at Mr. Exeleigh's Wharf, to call his Boat ashore, unfortunately, by the tilting of a Plank, fell into the River, and was drowned.

Hugh Finley, Esq; His Majesty's Surveyor-General of the Post-Roads, having been on that Service to the Southward, is gone on the same Business towards North-Carolina, &c.

The General Assembly of North Carolina, which met at Newbern on the 4th of December last, were, on the 21st of the same Month, prorogued to the 1st of March next—having done no Business.

The House in Fort George, New-York, wherein His Excellency Governor Tryon resided, was in the Night of the 29th ult. entirely consumed by Fire, with all the elegant and costly Furniture therein, Plate, Cash, Jewels, &c. many public and all His Excellency's private Papers. The Governor his Lady, and Daughter, narrowly escaped perishing; Miss Tryon was [illegible] out of an upper Window; and a Servant was suffocated. [illegible] began in the Council-Chamber, no Body knew how. The Loss is estimated at more than 3000 Pounds Sterling. It was with much Difficulty that the Flames were [illegible] spreading, to the Destruction of the whole City.

There has been no Alteration in the Prices of Rice and Indico since our last. The Quantity of each, cleared since the 1st of November last to this Day, stands thus:

Indico, 277,363 Pounds
Rice, 16,177 Tierces.

The Pallas, commanded by Capt. John Turner, bound for London, is the richest Ship has been cleared here this Crop, having not less then 122,000 Pounds of Indico on board, of the best Quality, besides near 500 Tierces of Rice, and other Articles.—The Portland, Capt. Wilson, has also 52,500 Pounds of fine Indico on board.

"The 11th Instant died in Child-bed, at Beaufort Port-Royal, Mrs. Mary Elliott, Wife of William Elliott, Esq; a Lady endowed with every Qualification that could dignify Human Nature."

From the NEW-YORK JOURNAL, or General Advertiser, dated January 6, 1774.

The Brigt. Prince of Wales, Capt. Mason, of Philadelphia, arrived here last Saturday night, in 3 days from Charles-Town in South-Carolina.—Capt. Mason carried the news of the landing of the Tea.

The following extract of a letter, dated Virginia, July 2d, 1770, written to a neighbouring colony on its defective Conduct, respecting the non-importation agreement, is taken from the October Magazine for September 1770, and thought to be properly applicable, to the late conduct of one of our sister colonies (South-Carolina) in sacrificing the grand and important interest of all America, to private pique and domestic contention, certainly contrived and promoted by some secret enemies to the rights of the Colonies, to effect the landing of the Tea, and subject them to the payment of the duty on importation, laid by the British Parliament for raising a Revenue in America.

"I am sorry to find the noble cause of American Liberty to be betrayed by its pretended friends with you. Can it be possible that men who have soar'd so high, as to attract the Admiration and esteem of all the virtuous part of mankind, should at once sink so low, as to become the contempt and derision of every individual? But I hope it is not possible, that for a mess of pottage you should sell your invaluable liberties, and entail the curse of Slavery upon your descendants for ever, when perseverance but for a little longer, secures the prize, and makes your names immortal. We are all patriots here, and will hold no intercourse or connection with you, if you basely desert the cause."
